New classroom project - Draw a self portrait.

Your first task of the day is to finish off your self-portrait.

If you have already finished yours, are there any extra details that you would like to add?

All about me fact file

Your second task of the day is to create a fact file all about yourself for your new teacher.

This will help your new teacher to get to know you a little bit before you return back to school in September.

This piece of work will also be printed out and put on the wall in your new classroom. It is therefore very important that you try your best and try to impress your new teacher

Please fill in the fact file below. If you do not have a printer at home you can collect a copy from school.
