Dear Parents/Carers

In the week beginning Monday 22nd February, the Prime Minister is expected to make an announcement about a full/ wider opening of schools. We are preparing and making the necessary arrangements to safely welcome back all pupils and a plan will be sent out after the holiday once we know more. School will continue to remain open from the 22nd February for the pupils of critical workers and vulnerable pupils.

Home Learning for the week beg 22nd Feb will on the school website from Sunday 21st or will be available to collect from the school office on Monday 22nd. If you require any further resources to help with home learning, please contact school.

Enjoy the half term everyone, whether it's a break from school or home learning, you all deserve a rest and to have some fun (parents too).

Kind Regards

Cheryl Cappleman

Head teacher
